

Tax Corresponder™

Tables, charts, and other information used by tax professionals

Time is money, and the time saved by answering clients' questions with a letter from Tax Corresponder instead of a phone call will more than pay for the program. Tax Corresponder contains over 300 tax and financial planning letters, attachments and handouts to answer your clients' most common questions.

Tax Corresponder includes pre-written letters on such topics as IRAs, tax planning strategies, higher education tax breaks, estate planning, and record retention guidelines. There are also responses to typical IRS notices, audit correspondence, engagement letters, informational handouts on various tax topics, tax return elections, and letters to help you better market your services.
